

Iowa City Veterans Affairs Healthcare System
PGY-1 Pharmacy Residents
2018-2019

Kiley Boeding, Pharm.D., originally from New Hampton, Iowa, received her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of Iowa in May 2018. She has been involved in the Iowa Harm Reduction Coalition, American Society of Health-System Pharmacists, Area Substance Abuse Council, Phi Delta Chi pharmaceutical fraternity, and the University of Iowa Pain Management, Substance Use Disorder, Palliative Care organization. Dr. Boeding's areas of interest include pain management, palliative care, and mental health. In the future, she intends to pursue a PGY-2 and obtain BCPS certification. Kiley.Boeding@va.gov

Jade Feller, Pharm.D., originally from Bettendorf, Iowa received her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of Iowa in May 2018. She has been involved with the University of Iowa College of Pharmacy PODS, Kappa Psi Pharmaceutical Fraternity, American Pharmacists Association-Academy of Student Pharmacists, and American Society of Health-System Pharmacists. Dr. Feller's clinical interests include infectious disease, oncology, and internal medicine. She plans to obtain BCPS certification and pursue a career in clinical pharmacy practice. Jade.Feller@va.gov

Alecia Rottinghaus, Pharm.D., originally from Charles City, Iowa, received her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of Iowa College of Pharmacy in May 2018. She has been involved with the University of Iowa Student National Pharmaceutical Association; University of Iowa - Pain Management, Substance Use Disorder, Palliative Care; Iowa Harm Reduction Coalition; National Community Pharmacists Association; American Society of Health-System Pharmacists; American College of Clinical Pharmacy; and Kappa Psi Fraternity. Dr. Rottinghaus's areas of interest include psychiatry, both inpatient and ambulatory care, and infectious disease. She intends to pursue a career in one of these fields and obtain BCPS certification. Alecia.Rottinghaus@va.gov